ALEXIS VENECHANOS HEAD COACH THIRD SEASON, MARYLAND '03

Alexis Venechanos enters her third season at the helm of the Ohio State women's lacrosse program in 2012-13. In her two prior campaigns, she has led the Buckeyes to appearances in the ALC semifinals and to double-digit victories in each of them.

In addition, she assumed the role as head coach of the Canadian national team, leading them for the first time in the North America Challenge Cup in Summer 2012. Her first World Cup will be in Summer 2013 as the host team in Oshawa, Ontario.

Venechanos (pronounced: ven-eh-CHAN-ohs) was named the second head coach of the OSU lacrosse program July 1, 2010, after spending four years as the head coach at Massachusetts following a three-year stint as assistant coach Northwestern and a successful playing career at Maryland.

"The Ohio State University has a phenomenal reputation both academically and athletically and I am honored to be named its next women's lacrosse coach," Venechanos said upon her hiring. "I look forward to aiding in the tradition of success for these student-athletes on and off the field and taking this next step in my professional career with the Buckeye family."

A winner on every level, Venechanos has been a part of four NCAA titles (as a player and coach) and a total of eight conference championships. She replaced Sue Stimmel, who resigned from her position in May as the only previous head coach in Buckeye program history.

"We are pleased to welcome Alexis into the Ohio State family as the next head coach of our women's lacrosse program," Smith said. "She has been successful at every level of her career and has demonstrated her ability to help a program reach its full potential, while developing student-athletes as both players and people."

Venechanos inherited a UMass program in August 2006 that had not been to the NCAA tournament in over 20 years and within three seasons, took the Minute-women back to the postseason for the first time in a quarter century. They went on to make a second-consecutive NCAA trip in 2010, punctuating a career already marked by a pair of Atlantic 10 championship tournament titles (2009, 2010), an Atlantic 10 regular-season title (2009) and three appearances in the A-10 Tournament championship game.

In all, Venechanos registered an overall record of 36-38, including double-digit wins in each of the last two years, an Atlantic 10 regular-season record of 18-10 and an A-10 tournament record of 5-1.

Prior to taking over the program at UMass, Venechanos served as the first assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Northwestern for the 2004-06 seasons, helping the Wildcats to the first two of five-consecutive national championships. They posted a 56-4 record during that span, winning 93 percent of their games, including a 41-1 record in her last two years.

Venechanos primarily mentored the goalies and defense at Northwestern, placing the defensive unit among the nation's best. In her final season in 2006, the Wildcats led the nation in scoring margin and were in the Top 5 in scoring defense, all with a rookie goalie. In the undefeated season of 2005, Venechanos tutored NU goalkeeper Ashley Gersuk as she posted the NCAA-best GAA and earned ALC Goalie of the Year honors, while helping the team become the top scoring defense and hold the largest scoring margin in the nation.

As a player, Venechanos was an All-America goalie at the University of Maryland, the winningest women's lacrosse program of all-time, where she captured two national championships in 2000 and 2001. The Terps went 73-15, an 83 percent win mark, during her four seasons in College Park, including a 23-0 mark in 2001, Venechanos' first as starting goalie.

As a senior captain in 2003, Venechanos was the recipient of the Ensign C. Markland Kelly Award, given to the nation's top goalkeeper. She also was a consensus first team All-American, as well as first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) and ACC Tournament MVP. Despite playing the second half of the season with a torn ACL, Venechanos posted 164 saves vs. 121 goals allowed and was in the Top 10 nationally in both save percentage (.575) and goals-against average (6.62).

The 32-year old Venechanos is a native of Yorktown, N.Y. where she was a three-sport athlete at Yorktown High School in lacrosse, basketball and soccer. She holds a bachelor's degree in communications from Maryland.

AMANDA BELICHICK ASSISTANT COACH THIRD SEASON, WESLEYAN '07

Amanda Belichick enters her third season as an assistant coach with Ohio State women's lacrosse in 2012-13 after joining the staff in August 2010. Belichick, who coached under Alexis Venechanos at UMass in 2010, helped the Minutewomen to repeat performances as Atlantic-10 champions and NCAA Tournament participants.

She joined the UMass program after serving as head lacrosse coach at Choate Rosemary Hall for two years. Belichick, the daughter of New England Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick, also served as an assistant coach for the varsity soccer team and the junior varsity ice hockey team.

A native of Weston, Mass., Belichick has worked several lacrosse camps throughout the country including Amonte Sports Camp and The Lacrosse School. At the club level, she served as coach of the Nor'Easter Lacrosse Team and Revolution Lacrosse. A 2007 graduate of Wesleyan University, Belichick was a co-captain for the Cardinals as a senior. During her junior year of 2006, she became just the second player in program history to scoring over 50 points in a season (33g, 19a) as an attack.

"Amanda was a very integral part of the UMass repeating as A10 Champions in 2010," Venechanos said. "She understands the recruiting process and did an incredible job evaluating and recruiting high school prospects while at UMass. Also, she possesses strong creativity and her past experiences as a coach and a player will aid to the program."

CHRISTY FINCH ASSISTANT COACH THIRD SEASON, NORTHWESTERN '08

Christy Finch is in her third season as assistant coach with the women's lacrosse program in 2012-13 after joining Alexis Venechanos' staff in August 2010. A native of Hudson, Ohio, she joined the Buckeyes after one season as assistant coach at Cincinnati following her playing career at Northwestern, where she was coached by Venechanos her first two seasons.

A four-time national champion with the Wildcats, Finch was named the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association (IWLCA) Defensive Player of the Year and an All-America selection in 2007 and 2008.

As a senior in 2008, Finch led the nation in caused turnovers with 70 and was honored as a Tewaaraton Trophy finalist, Defender of the Year by Inside Lacrosse, Womenslacrosse.com and WomensLax.com. The defender was also named Northwestern's female recipient of the Big Ten's Outstanding Sportsmanship Award.

"It was a pleasure coaching Christy at Northwestern," Venechanos said. "Her experience of winning four national championships, while earning All-America honors and being named Defender of the Year will enhance the program. She is recognized as one of the top players to come of the state of Ohio and I am looking forward to her guidance in recruiting in state prospects."

For her career, Finch caused 183 turnovers, ranking fourth all-time in the NCAA record books and was part of a Wildcat senior class which finished their careers with an overall record of 83-3 (.965), including a 43-0 record at home and four national championships. She graduated in the spring of 2008 with a degree in communication studies and a minor in business institutions.

GABBY CAPUZZI VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT FIRST SEASON, OHIO STATE '12

Gabby Capuzzi, a former All-American midfielder on the Ohio State women's lacrosse team, was named a volunteer assistant coach for the 2012-13 campaign, head coach Alexis Venechanos announced in August 2012.

"Gabby is the ultimate Buckeye and we are so thrilled to have her back in Columbus," Venechanos said. "She was a tremendous role model for her teammates during her playing days and we have no doubt that she will make a very smooth transition as a member of our coaching staff."

Capuzzi lettered from 2009-12 and was a Second Team All-American and First Team All-ALC honoree in her final season wearing the Scarlet & Gray. She led the team with 42 goals, 52 draw controls, 38 ground balls and 31 caused turnovers last season and is the OSU record holder for career draws (166) after tying the single-season draw record in 2012 and owning two of the Top 3 positions.

"I am very excited to have this opportunity to remain a part of the Buckeye Nation," Capuzzi said. "After being coached the past two years by Alexis, Amanda and Christy, I am eager to become part of such a dynamic coaching staff. I look forward to working with the team in achieving our goals for the upcoming season."

The Broomhall, Pa., native graduated from Ohio State in June with a bachelor's degree in communications and currently is enrolled in an online sports management and leadership graduate program through Duquesne.

2012 SEASON REVIEW

IN A NUTSHELL

- The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season 11-6 overall with their second-consecutive trip to the semifinals of the ALC Tournament. All six losses came at the hands of ranked teams, including three within the Top 5.
- Ohio State reached double-digit victories for the seventh time in 17 seasons after starting the year 5-0 for the first time in a decade.
- Ohio State was No. 15 in the final Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association (IWLCA) poll of the year, extending its streak of consecutive weeks in the Top 20 to 17, dating back to the 2011 campaign. After starting the year at No. 18 in the preseason rankings, the Buckeyes fluctuated between Nos. 10-15 through the year, but did not fall outside of the Top 15 all season.
- The average margin of defeat was just over three goals (3.1), while the Buckeyes command their wins by more than eight (8.1).
- Ohio State closed out the season among the Top 20 in several statistical categories in NCAA Division I. As a team, the Buckeyes were ranked ninth in scoring defense (8.76) and 12th in scoring margin (+4.12), while coming in 19th in scoring offense (12.88), total points (327) and caused turnovers (8.59).
- Alayna Markwordt and Gabby Capuzzi, both senior captains, were named Second Team All-Americans by the IWLCA. This was the fourth time in program history Ohio State had multiple selections, while Markwordt becomes the third two-time recipient among the Buckeyes' 12 overall selections.
- The senior class of Olivia Annalora, Laura Beck, Gabby Capuzzi, Olivia Cora, Kirsten Donahue, Alayna Markwordt and Caylee Rafalko wrapped up their careers as the winningest class in program history, procuring 41 victories over the last four years.
